

LOOKING BACK ACROSS 200 YEARS ...and then hitting Fast Forward >>>

For most people, the view of the future is laced with negativity, with talk turning to the impending Armageddon for human workers. Will our place in the job market be overtaken by advanced artificial intelligence (AI) like brick-laying robots, AI-enabled company directors, driverless transport, and even cookie-baking bots? Let's take a look at the "evolution of employment".

WAY BACK IN 1850...

There were straightforward jobs like milkmen, ice dealers, drovers, chimney sweeps, shoepeg makers and matchmakers who were paid for matching people up for marriage!

THE CHALLENGE OF GENDER AND DIVERSITY INTEGRATION

In the 70's and 80's the world needed more Bookkeepers, Teachers, Cashiers, Tellers, Salesmen, Machine Operators, Road Builders and Construction workers.

SURVIVE AND THRIVE

South Africa is no longer lagging behind the changes that take place in first world countries. The "global stage" as we once knew it, has become a village the size of a postage stamp. If we want to "play in this new market space" we need to embrace the change and equip ourselves and our children with the necessary skills and learning to do so.

1950s – THE DIGITAL REVOLUTION begins

There came a massive shift from mechanical to analogue, electronic technology to digital electronics. Mom and pop shops thrived and men were still the primary breadwinners

Y2K - THE WINDS OF CHANGE

The advent of the call centre boom and fast food drive-thru outlets! Tele-Evangelists, Law Enforcement Officers and Y2K Programmers where the BOMB!
